

Ride Notes

This ride is normally done as part of a longer ride on Route 66, part of the National Cycle Network (NCN) but it makes a perfect ride for children.

Route 66 comes from Beverley, Market Weighton and Pocklington and, at York crosses the Millennium Bridge to Tadcaster etc.

- 1 The entrance to Hagg Wood is just before the farm yard. It is a community wood open to everyone.
- 2 Interpretation board. If you want to explore leave your bikes here, or at the end of the Stone Road 3 but please don't chain bikes to the gate as Forestry might require access.
- 4 Bluebell area - visit end April/early May.
- 5 The original 'balloon tree', a much-loved and perfectly-shaped old horse chestnut tree used to stand here but it died quite recently.
- 6 'Humps & bumps' mark the site of the deserted medieval village of Scoreby next to the river.

Suitable for even the youngest cyclists.

Time: This ride may take 45 minutes each way.

Route info: Approx. 9 miles. (can be combined with ride 7 to get you to Dunnington to start this one, in which case it's about 16 miles - a day out).

This ride isn't recommended for young children who haven't ridden much before as it's quite a long way. But if you have a few rides under your belt give it a try. It goes through very quiet countryside and, via established rights of way, over farmland. Mainly traffic free public bridleways.
